February Joint SNAME-CIMarE Dinner Meeting

Sixty-four members, students and guests attended the annual joint CIMarE-SNAME dinner meeting at Cheers Restaurant in North Vancouver to hear three presentations. Edward Woods, Technical Manager of Caterpillar Emissions Solutions, explained diesel engine emissions, regulations and reduction technologies. Mark Mulligan of Capilano Maritime Design described Three Unusual Naval Architecture Projects recently completed by his firm. And BCIT Marine Engineering student Gheorge Coman discussed his sea phase work-experience and his hopes for the future of the industry. CIMarE's Papers Chairman Al Novotny and SNAME's Webmaster and Librarian Dan Vyselaar thanked the speakers on behalf of both organizations.

March Dinner Meeting

Brent Perry, CEO of Corvus Energy Ltd, spoke to 36 members, students and guests at the March 17 dinner meeting of the Vancouver Branch of the Canadian Institute of Marine Engineering where he reviewed the rapid advances in lithium ion battery technology and the company's production plans. Perry described the new generation batteries as "game changing" technology for the marine industry. Following the meeting, the Vancouver Branch held its Annual General Meeting and confirmed its slate of directors for 2010-11.

The next Vancouver Branch dinner meeting will be Wednesday, April 21, 2010 at Cheers Restaurant in North Vancouver with a presentation on turbochargers. For details and reservations contact Bob Brown, email cimare@burrardironworks.com or 604 684-2491.

2010 Vancouver Branch Scholarship Winners Announced

The three recipients of the 2010 Vancouver Branch Scholarships were announced at the March 2010 meeting. First-year BCIT students Sebastian Fritz and Elize Duggleby-Chouinard will each receive $500.00. Third-year student Gheorghe Coman was awarded the senior scholarship, open to second and third year students, and he will receive $1000.00. Awards and presentations will be made at the April 21, 2010 meeting.

It was a difficult selection process this year with many well-qualified students applying. Our thanks to all who entered and congratulations to our three winners.
